Fr. Milbauer Initates Changes

Fr. Milbauer

Pius X High School has undergone various changes within the past two years. The main reason for this is our principal Father Robert Milbauer. Since Fr. Milbauer has been at Pius X, many changes have been initiated. It seems to be the consensus of the students, that most of these changes have been for the better. In a recent interview, Fr. Milbauer expressed his views on many controversial aspects of Pius X.

One goal Fr. Milbauer has set for himself is to increase the enrollment of students to approximately 1,000. His plans also include raising the acceptance standards on incoming freshmen in order to improve the quality of the students. In order to fulfill these goals, Fr. Milbauer is visiting different grade schools and encouraging the students to attend Pius.

Concerning religious aspects, Fr. Milbauer's views Pius as a community-serving Catholic school. His views are based upon the students' fulfillment to the needs of the community. Community service activities include the Christmas and Thanksgiving drives and financial aid to the various missions.

Regarding the priesthood, Fr. Milbauer feels that more priests are needed and wishes to encourage some young men at Pius to follow a vocational career. These views are justified in a comparison to the number of priest on the staff. When at Pius for the first time, there were 14 priests on the staff and now there are only three.

Fr. Milbauer pursued his priesthood vocation at Saint John's Seminary. He graduated from Mount Saint Mary's College with a degree in education and since has taught for 11 years. Aside from his teaching credentials, he has served in the priesthood for 19 years.

Fr. Milbauer was a teacher at Pius before leaving for Alemany High School.

During his tenure at Alemany, he was asked by the superintendent of schools to become the principal of Pius X and he accepted gracefully.

Upon his return to Pius, Fr. Milbauer noticed a change in atmosphere and curriculum. He noticed that the counseling program had changed in that there is a specific counselor for each grade level. Formerly when he was teaching at Pius, each teacher was a member of the counseling department.

Other changes include more regulated dress code and a more traditional curriculum.

When Fr. Milbauer was asked how Pius students compared with other students he taught, "The Pius students are among the best."

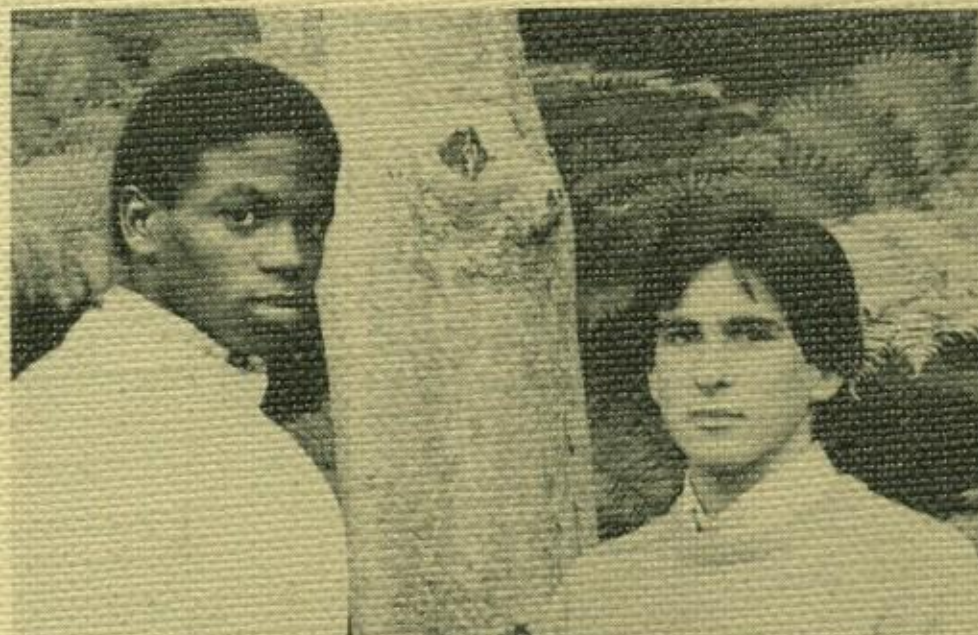

Fr. Milbauer has also initiated changes of his own. One change that raised many eyebrows among the students has been the longer school year. This was because the state law required not only private schools, but public schools as well to lengthen the school year in order to provide a more thorough education.

Perhaps the most controversial change dealt with new uniforms for the female students. This change was due as a result of the lack of satisfaction in the quality of the old uniforms.

We Still Are Winners

Eduardo Nevarez and Jonathan Scott personify both the success and the future of Pius X football. After ten games, Eduardo completed 62.8% of his passes as the Warrior quarterback for a total of 1677 yards, setting a new Pius X school record in the process. He led the entire southeast area in completion percentage and yards passing. One of his favorite targets in 1984 was tight end Jonathan Scott. Johnathan caught "24 passes during the season and was a devastating blocker for the Warriors. Both players were rewarded for their achievements by being selected 1st team All Angelus League at their positions. Both players achieved this success as juniors and will return to the Pius X team next year. A total of six players from Pius were selected to the All Angelus League team. Second team all league players from Pius X were Rory Ewing, Feliberto Navarro, David Box and Charles Criner. All six were juniors. All six will return to compete for the Warriors in 1985. The future looks bright for Pius X.

Pius Center Signs To Portland

Richie Antee, a senior and our 6-9 center signed a letter of intent to play basketball for the University of Portland next year. Richie had a variety of offers. Among them were San Jose State, U.C. San Diego, U.C. Irvine and the University of San Francisco. And as our Head Coach Mike Murphy mentioned that Missouri, Colorado, and Colorado State were also interested in Richie, but they were waiting to see how he came back from last season knee problems.

In the 1983-84 season, Richie stretched ligaments in his right knee, and calcium deposits were found in the back of his knee, which required arthroscopic surgery. Richie didn't return to action until the final two games of the season, only playing a minute in each of them.

Coach Murphy commented that Richie only played five games total last year, and those were Varsity games. He averaged 14 points and 12 rebounds in them. Murphy has a feeling that Portland, whose coach is Jack Avina, will use Antee as a forward. "He'll probably be a quick-type of forward, he said. "He is not a power-type, but he's agile, active and can shoot it. I know they expect alot from him." We, the Pius X family, would like to wish Richie the best of luck in the future, and great success.

"Together In Perfect Harmony"

Togetherness and perfect harmony is very hard to find
but keep hope in your heart
and dream in your mind.

Every once in a while we think about the past wishing it would stay hoping it will last.

As long as there are stars in the sky
we will always be together
no matter where we shall go, we'll be in each others thoughts forever.

If you keep a song in your heart
there will always be a special part, a place for perfect harmony that will get you through life so easily.

We trust that one of us would be there when the road runs out and we don't know where to go we were there to let each other know.

Things change and so do we what we want sometimes can never be the memories of school years past are locked in my (our) hearts and they've been there from the very start.

Always keep a little prayer in your pocket and you're sure to see the light soon there'll be joy and happiness and your world will be bright.

Togetherness and perfect harmony are very hard to find
but keep hope in your heart
and a dream in your mind.

The old "Pius Studs" will carry the good cheer of the team where ever they may go.

"Hey, look at us we are here to show off our SENIOR SPIRIT."

Together In "Perfect" Harmony

Through thick and thin, Martha, Aubrey & Jenni will forever treasure the basis of a true friendship.

"Together In Perfect Harmony" By Martha Grijalva
There are several things in life which come naturally and to the Pius X family, that quality is "togetherness". In whatever we do a special spirit is spread. In our everyday activities we stress the importance of working as a whole to accomplish a project or job. Everyone has special talents that others don't have; that is why it is important for us to share our talents with others so that they can be put together to solve problems which may appear in certain situations. There are other things that are involved in working together with someone and it's a very important skill, and that is to respect each other's ideas, for everyone deserves the right to learn to understand that creating something takes time, patience and also love. But why love? Well, love is an essential part of building; just the way love grows so does the project, and before you know it, it's accomplished. Togetherness, as I said before, reminds me of Pius for we are always working hard to satisfy each other's needs.

Father Milbauer has passed on a tremendous sense of togetherness in these past two years that he's been principal. He's spread his friendship to all the students, through a warm smile that he is constantly wearing, as he wanders through the campus throughout the day. He has even spread his cheer in the faculty, since his wonderful arrival, the faculty seems to be more relaxed, which makes it easier for them to work together in conjunction with one another, not to mention with the students. We will forever remember his high spirit.

The Seniors tend to hold a very special type of togetherness within their class. A major part of this could be Senior Square; it's an honor to be able to own such a space, it's not only a space for the seniors to lay around and gossip, but it's a special place that has been selected, and blessed, for the seniors to think of their future. The future holds many surprises, and hopefully all the seniors respect the honor senior square gives them. Senior Square to the Seniors creates a sense of togetherness among them even though there are different types of people. They all stick up for one another's benefits. The best part of Senior Square is having to wait for it, and when the time comes, it's even better.

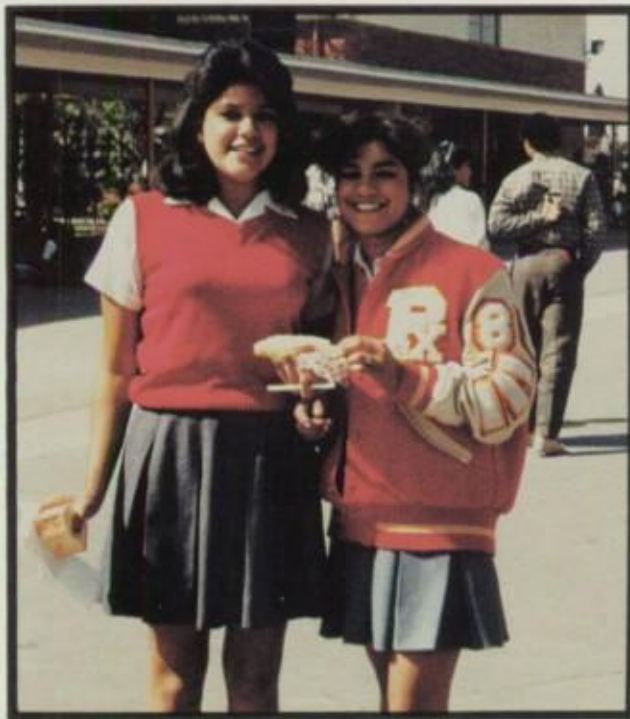

Another example of togetherness could be this year's football team: even though we lost several times, they all learned to deal with each other's thoughts and feelings they respected themselves. The Red Berets this year were always in constant togetherness and it showed every time they walked out on that field together. We are Pius and we'll never let our togetherness be gone; either because of a loss or a failure.

"I cannot tell a lie" Coach Totten did it!

The rally seems to have these sophomores in wild curiosity.

A typical moment is shared during lunch.

Getting It Together . . .

Getting it together at Pius means that everyone strives to achieve one's goals. But in order to accomplish them we all need the help of each other. We, the Pius family, are a perfect example of a constant achievement. Pius was built in 1953 to achieve its goal. In honor of Pope Pius X, who was interested in youth, this school was established. This goal has been accomplished throughout the years. A sense of pride, unity, and spirit has been created among all the people who come to Pius, and itself is an accomplished goal. Attending Pius builds up high standards of social behavior that reflects on the Catholic community, not to mention the sense of "togetherness" we feel when we are here at Pius. During the four years that the students spend in high school, we all tend to get a feeling of togetherness and through it we maintain the special memories of all the people we care about. And that's what getting it all together is all about: Being able to accomplish something and walking away feeling good about it.

"Marisol ... this is not a sleeping matter."

Danny Martin, a graduating Senior from Pius X is considering Loyola Marymount University or University of the Pacific for further education in hopes of obtaining a rewarding career. Through participating in football, as starting left guard, no. 66, Danny has gained more pride in his school. Although the season was not very successful, Danny said that it taught him a lot about life and himself. Besides his parents, Danny would like to thank Coach La Vigne, who has influenced his life greatly.

Pius X has given Danny a memorable Senior year which he will not forget and he states, "My years at Pius X have been a rewarding experience, and I am proud of my Alma Mater."

Lisa Manous, a graduating Senior from Pius plans to attend UCLA and major in commercial/graphic arts. At the end of her senior year, Lisa has learned enough for her to be able to leave Pius X with a definite goal in life and has the ability to pursue it. Pius X has been a place where Lisa has been able to mature and understand more about responsibility through her being Song Captain and ASB Secretary. She has taught herself that she must set goals and work hard to obtain them.

Lisa would like to thank her friends, especially Chantel Bigelow, for helping her find the true meaning of friendship: consideration, honesty and love.

When asked what Pius X has meant to her, Lisa replied, "Pius X has been a growing experience for me through friendship, personal experience and in understanding those around me."

Sophomores

God, I wish I were a Senior already!

Darryl Norwood, an outstanding sophomore student, here at Pius, is excelling greatly in Frosh-Soph Football. He is currently starting as no. 4 and plays starting quarterback. He has been playing football for two years at Pius and played on Pop Warner team before. Aside from being busy with football at Pius, Darryl is also in St. Albert's Youth Group. He enjoys collecting baseball cards, watching television, and going to football games. When asked about his future plans, he replied that he wants to play varsity football and baseball at Pius. After graduation he would like to go to the University of North Carolina and major in Physical Education to become a coach. We asked Darryl what he thought about Pius and he said, "Pius is a big step from St. Albert's."

Eileen Byrne, a sophomore here at Pius, is active in the Girls' Sports Program. She was fortunate enough in her freshman year to make the varsity teams for volleyball, basketball, and softball. She is currently starting in Varsity Volleyball as no. 20 and is doing a great job. Her abilities really show while she is on the court. When asked about what she thought about Pius, she replied, "The thing I like most about Pius is that there is a great pride throughout the school. You hear it in the halls and at the Pius activities . . . The feeling of unity really comes alive because you have to work together and help each other out. Pius means helping each other out."

Freshmen

Freshmen know that in order to be healthy they are better off bring their own lunch!

Portrait of a new student, freshman, Samuel Cruz. When he was told he was chosen for the special achievement section, he, was speechless, but contented. Sam is from South Gate Jr. High and chose Pius because of its good qualities. Sam has been involved in many different sports since he was 8 years old. While involved in many sports, he has received numerous awards, such as most valuable player, twice. Sam is currently on the football team and plans to join the basketball team and track team. When asked what enjoyment he gets, out of playing sports he said, "I like the competition whether we win or lose and I like all the new friends I've made."

By: Michelle Brooks

A new pretty face around Pius High is that of freshman Julie Davis. "I like being here at Pius. The people are fun to be around and the teachers are nice. Pius has a lot of spirit and I like that", she says. Pius is no stranger to Julie since her older sister Cheryl graduated with the class of '83, and another sister, Mary, is currently a senior here. Julie is active in volleyball and softball, and her future plans at Pius are to continue playing volleyball and to run for a student office.

Faculty

Since her graduation, Mrs. Kourek, has kept a warm place in her heart of her ole Alma Mater. This is the reason why she came back to Pius to teach. She wanted to bring back a little of what Pius had given her. Being the Head of Counseling she finds she has a better chance to get to know the students. Mrs. Kourek finds her jobs are satisfying and rewarding. She feels that the school has undergone many changes since she roamed the halls of Pius as a student. She states that the rules were alot stricter then, for example, girls and boys did not have classes together and there was NO talking in the hallways. When asked how she feels about being one of the busiest people on our campus. She said, "I enjoy the work but it can become hectic at times."

Mr. Murphy has been an active member of the Pius X family for the past four years. He hopes more kids from the community start to take advantage of what Pius has to offer. As head basketball coach, he finds this season to be tough but an exciting challenge. He feels the students have been supportive, even though the team has struggled, he expects his players to try their best and maintain a college prep GPA. He also expects the athletic program to represent the school community in the true spirit of the school philosophy. When on the court he feels great, he says that he can't believe he actually gets paid for teaching and working with young people. Mr. Murphy says that through his coaching experience, he has learned to be more patient and to have a great appreciation for the academic responsibilities of both the coach and the player. Mr. Murphy loves working at Pius X for there's no other high school he'd rather be at.

Activities

"Go Pius ever onward ..."

Mrs. Marroquin is one of Pius' many helping hands. Her daily schedule does not only include being a teacher but she is also ASB Moderator and Activities Director. As Activities Director, Mrs. Marroquin is responsible for many of the progressive changes and developments that occur at Pius. She has introduced many new activities to us. "I like the general attitudes of the students. I like the curriculum and what it has to offer for the kids. I also enjoy the opportunity to share my knowledge with others", she said.

Mr. Drollinger has created the spirit of music here at Pius. He is the director of the band, but his efforts do not stop there, he is also the choir instructor. "Progress cannot be reached without making a certain commitment to music. Involvement with music, and the goal to be a musician is definitely a working process which has to be somewhere in order to move up," said Mr. Drollinger.

Rallies: Time To Show Pride

The serious faces of the varsity football team.

The rallies this year were filled with much enthusiasm and spirit. The students expressed their pride by participating in the cheers. Besides showing their pride and spirit, they also showed their support and belief in the teams. At the Homecoming Rally, the juniors won the spirit stick and the Class of '85 won the spirit trophy for the second time in a row. The freshmen won the spirit stick for the first time at the Basketball Rally. Since expressing your pride and spirit is what makes a rally, the people of Pius know how to do it.

The theme of this years Homecoming was "Time Will Reveal". It began with a series of activities. To show school spirit, the students dressed up according to the theme of each day. The week's activities came to an end with red and white day and the rally. The princesses processed to the stage with their escorts. The spirit stick was awarded to the junior class and for two years in a row the class of "85" won the spirit trophy. At half time, the activities included a performance by the drill team and pep squads. After the game there was a social in the gym where the coronation took place. Maribel De Leon was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1984.

Halloween: Monster Mash!!

The Halloween Spirit haunted Pius X again this year. As one entered the campus he was transformed into a "different" world of fairytale characters, witches, and other unearthly beings. A special activity rally was called in the gym for a Halloween Costume Contest, in which many strange creatures participated. The winners included:

Junior Ring Class Of 1986

In the famed O'Connor's Gym on the campus of Pius X, the class of 1986, received their school ring, which is a precious symbol of honor between the student's and their school. The presentation of the rings was given in a ceremony held during 4th period on December 7, 1984. The celebration was a joyous occasion for not only the Juniors but their proud parents. The giving of the rings was celebrated by Principal Fr. Milbauer, who blessed the rings. Fr. Campion gave a short talk about the history and the meaning of the giving and the taking of school ring. He gave insight to what that relationship is to the individual student. After the ceremony the Sophomore Class gave out refreshments to all that came to the ceremony.

"Oh my gosh, are my nails ok?"

Below: Hey! John isn't that a nice ring?

Celebrating With A Formal Christmas Flare

It is always best when you party with the BEST.

An enjoyable evening was had by all who attended the 1st Annual Christmas Formal which was held December 19, 1984, at the Port O' Call Restaurant in San Pedro. The dance was sponsored by the Senior Class who proved to be very successful in organizing the event. There was a lot of excitement that filled the air. After a considerable amount of time of socializing, everyone got up to dance with the music of the DJ, Marc Gold; there after, they danced the night away.

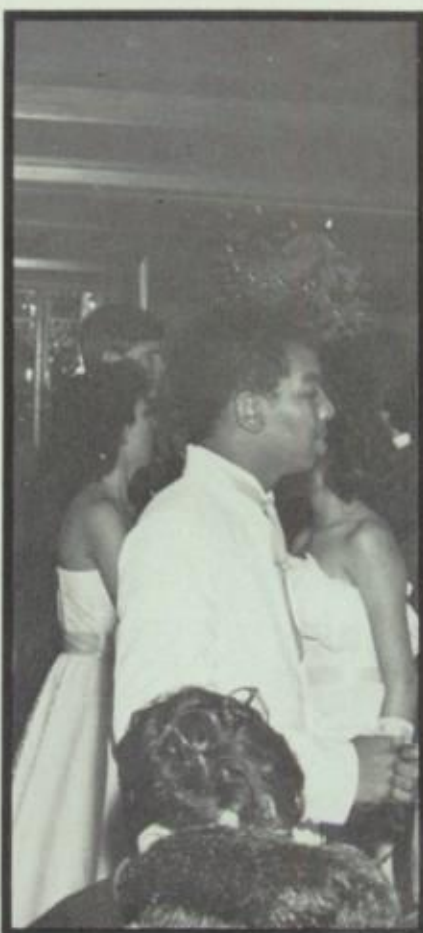

The Christmas Ball was a time to dance and have a good time but for this couple it was time to pose for a picture.

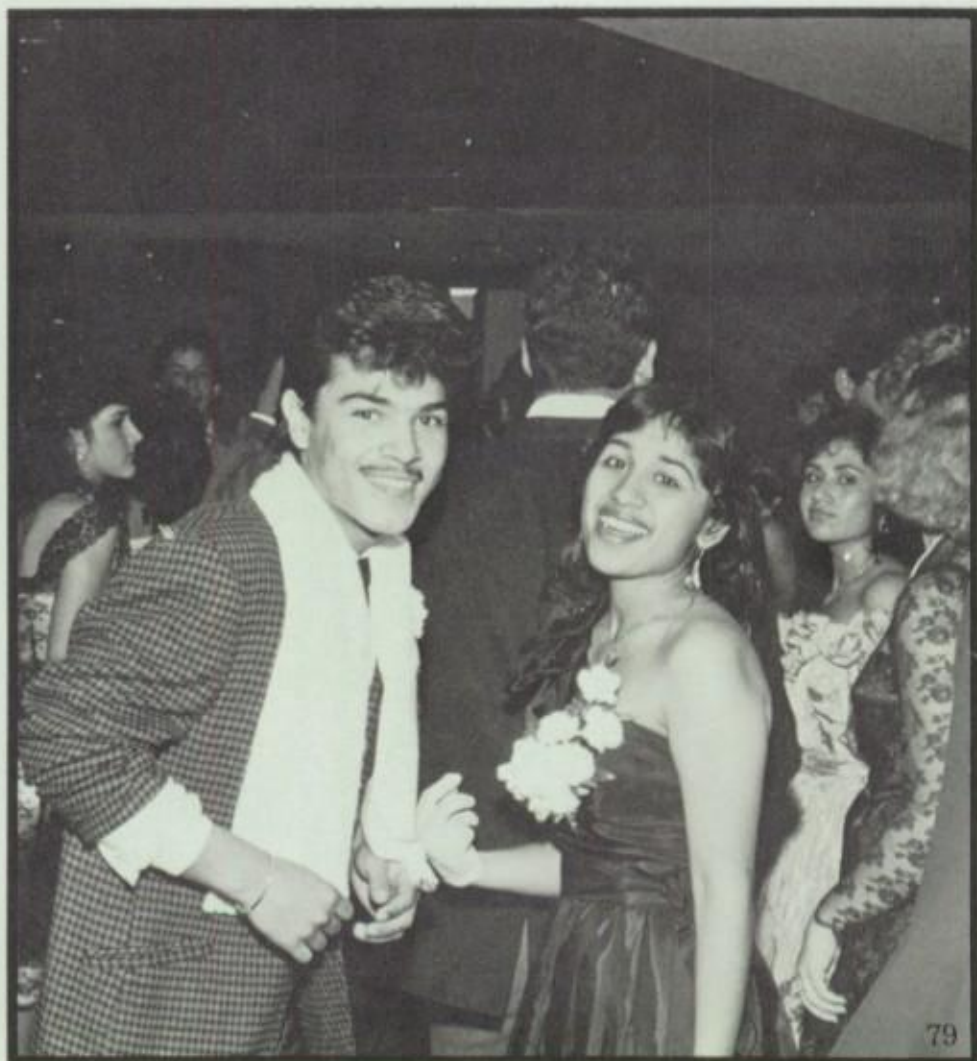

Ms. Marroquin offers Mr. Drollinger a tasty hors d'oeuvre, while he's too busy having his picture taken.

Posing for pictures has always been my favorite hobby, says Suzana, with a serious face.

There is always time to give a pleasant smile to a sneaky photographer.

A Performance Night For Christmas

The Christmas Concert given on behalf of the Fine Arts Department was a delightful experience into the world of music and visual performance. We are pleased to have so much talent resting here at Pius. The concert was given on December 15, in the rain but this handicap did not keep away the proud parents, friends and faculty that came to see the wonderful gift given to our school. The Fine Arts Department has in the past two years grown in size and we hope to see more of Pius' great talent displayed throughout the coming years.

Christian Services

Miss Rita Dever was chosen to be the Lay Campus Minister because of her heavy involvement in the area of Christian Service. From the time Miss Dever was hired as a religion teacher here at Pius, she has organized several of our Christian Service activities. These activities were set up for the students of this school to help the surrounding communities.

The Retreat Program is one of her major goals for the year of 84/85. Due to the difficulties of three years ago it had been suspended. Miss Dever started the year out with having one day retreats of the each section of the Freshmen Religion Classes. It took place in our large group room and was taught through a film, discussion, prayer and a Mass. The Sophomore Retreat was a one day retreat away from the school. It was given by the Salesians. The Junior/Senior Retreat will be three days during the month of March at Valyermo.

Another one of Miss Dever's goals is for the students here at Pius to attend Youth Day which is a workshop just for High School Students. This Youth Day is held in conjunction with the CCD Congress in January. The day will be filled with workshops, a liturgy, and a concert. Miss Dever has worked very hard to make the Thanksgiving and Christmas Season one of hope for others by raising enough money, food and toys for the poor. We are very proud, here at Pius, to have Miss Dever as a Shining example of the true meaning of being a Christian.

One of the most involved persons in Christian services at Pius is Reverend Campion Aspinall, a.k.a. Fr. Campion. He has been a priest for the past 24 years and has been at Pius X for quite sometime. His official title is Administrator of Religious affairs. With this job Father is in charge of masses before school, for classes and for student body, Penance Services and the religious department. In addition to this busy schedule, the "English fellow" finds the time to involve himself into the different Christian Drives at the school. Father feels much pride for the Pius Community for doing the excellent jobs on the drives this year.

Thanksgiving Mass

The Thanksgiving masses were held on November 21, 1984 and they turned out to be a success. The students at Pius pulled together to raise enough money to buy 600 dollars worth of turkeys, 250 dollars worth of extra food and 1,000 dollars to be sent to Ethiopia for aid. During the masses, the Drama Department performed a short play, "The Giving Tree", which is a skit based on the nature of giving. Also attending the mass was the Sarton Chorus who sung. Much thanks is given to the students at Pius for their generous contributions towards the success of the drive.

In prayerfull concentration Father Milbauer asks, the students to join in prayer

What do I do now?

Christmas Toy Drive

Miss Dever's Class Tree, donated by her Juniors.

Surprise! Here are Santa's little helpers.

The Christmas Toy Drive was a great success!!! Miss Dever and Fr. Campion with the help of the student body here at Pius raised $1,203.56. This money went to supply needy children with toys and special gifts for Christmas. As a Christian Community, Pius united to make the holiday a special place for those in need. The students here at Pius should be proud that they were able to bring happiness and joy into a small child's life.

"GIFTS FOR THE CHILD"

Marlene, you should watch who's looking before you take!

Celebrating Christmas

Christmas is a time for rejoicing and the giving of thanks to our Lord, for on this day he gave to us the gift of life and a new beginning. During our celebration of the liturgy for Christmas, it was just that! We rejoiced in prayer and music! The music was the delightful work of our own Girls' Choirs and the newly formed Warrior Chorus! The drama class gave us an interpretation of what the true meaning to Christmas is. This was done through a dramatic performance given during the homily. As a school, we the community, all gave ours thanks through the Mass for this new life and new beginning.

Convalescence Home: Caring Is A Part Of Pius X!!

Every day of the week one of Mr. La Vigne's senior religion classes goes to visit the West View Convalescence Home. They go and share a smile and conversation with the sick and lonely people at this Home.

Pius not only cares for people inside of school but also for people outside of the school, this with many more qualities is what makes Pius such a caring school.

Pius' Blood Drive: Be A Sweetheart Donate

This year's Blood Drive was a complete success due to the hard work and Devotion of Pius X Social Action Commissioner, Mary Davis. The Drive took place on Friday, February 15, 1985, with 121 people signed up to Donate their time, energy and most importantly ... their blood. All in all, Pius came up with 73 productive units of Blood to aid the Red Cross. Much thanks to the Donors, Rejects and those who unfortunately came through the traumatic experience ALIVE!!!

Retreat: Frosh/Soph

The Class of 87 deep in meditation.

Miss Dever can captivate any audience

Sophomores coming home from their retreat

The retreat program at Pius had not been in operation for the past two years. This year under the guidance of Miss Rita Dever and the Religion department we again have a retreat program. The program this year is not only for Seniors but for the underclassmen too. This past November the Freshmen were given a day through their Religion class to experience a day to religious enlightenment. This was followed by a Mass during a regular class period. The Sophomores were given the opportunity to experience a different setting for their retreat, which was given at Dominic Savio. The Sophomore Retreat was a one day experience for everyone in the class who wished to participate in the new and exciting enrichment of religious awareness. In both the Freshman and Sophomore Retreats both classes received a new and different type of learning experience never before offered to them in recent years.

Youth Day CCD Congress

The 1985 Youth Day was held at the Anaheim Convention Center. Together with Pius students, many other people from different schools and communities attended the various workshops. His Eminence Cardinal Timothy Manning, offered Mass for everyone in the arena. Following the Mass, there were more workshops. The day ended with a concert and a rally. All in all it was a rewarding experience.

Sports

Pius X sports ... In unity and "perfect harmony"

Doreen Munoz, a Senior here at Pius, has been very athletically involved her four years here. She has been on J.V. Volleyball and Basketball for 2 years, and on Varsity Volleyball 1 year and Varsity Basketball 2 years. When I asked Doreen what being a senior meant to her she replied "To me a senior means being on top and in control." Doreen is undecided about college but plans on going to the police academy to become a police officer. I asked her "Why a police officer?" She replied "Because it is a challenge and a chance for me to be independent. In Doreen's own words she said "Pius has given me a chance to experience new things and to discover myself to the fullest potential."

One of the most enthusiastic and sports orientated guys on campus is Senior, Tony Conrado. He has played Varsity Football for the past 2 years and was honored with a Red Beret for being named Varsity Football Captain. He feels a sense of accomplishment in his final year at Pius, he is looked up to by his fellow team mates and underclassmen. Some of the valuable things that Pius has given Tony is leadership qualities, ability to deal with others and a sense of responsibility to accept victory and defeat. Tony hopes to join the Marine Corp following graduation. When asked what Pius X has meant to him, Tony replied, "It has been my second home!"

Varsity Football: True Warriors

The 1984 football season saw the Warriors experience both frustration and excitement. Pius X lost some close games but had some outstanding performance by individuals on the varsity team. The Warriors led the entire Southeast area in passing with 1677 yards at a 63% completion rate, setting school juniors, were selected to the All-Angelus League team. This was more underclassmen all-league performers than any other team in the league.

All in all, the Pius X Warriors experienced a season filled with emotion, determination and dedication to a purpose. The players always gave 100% effort and played as a team. We are proud of them and anxious to see the success that will come from the foundation that they have laid.

Frosh/Soph On The Go

Included in one of the many changes this year at Pius was the conversion of the J.V. football team to a Frosh/Soph team. This was done to make our J.V. team a bigger and better team. With the many talented freshman and the experienced sophomores, combined they made a powerful and successful J.V. squad.

Varsity Volleyball '84

The Varsity Girls Volleyball Team accomplished many goals. This year's team of girls were a very determined group and went out to do the best job they could. They had the main ingredient that makes up a good team: they had a fresh spirit of enthusiasm, a respect for one another and a desire to work hard to accomplish the goals they had set for themselves. Our valiant lady warriors fought hard to make a spot in the C.I.F. playoffs, but at last they lost to Bishop Montgomery. It was a disappointment but our lady warriors are winners. Miss McIntyre will have a fine team for the year. There are many girls who will be on this winning team next year.

Mario Flores, Roman Mendoza, and Brian Conboy finished among the top runners in the League Finals. The Girls' Team had a year of gaining valuable experience in one of CIF's toughest leagues. Anne-Marie Williams led the girls with 3 first place finishes. The challenge of the Cross Country Runner is between he the runner an the course. ## THE 1985 VARSITY BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

It all started with just a few. It was a lot of hard work. Not many wins in the beginning. We thought the Coach was crazy. Not many people to the games, only the loyal few stuck with us. Year after year of sticking to the basics. We would fall short but not give up. We went from forgotten ten to the top ten, from a few fans to a sellout crowd, from not much fun to having a ball. We made the playoffs! We stuck to our guns. We kept after the basics."

ALL RIGHT!!!! "WE GOT THE JOB DONE"

Michael Murphy, head basketball coach at Pius X, has been named the Angelus League Coach of the Year. His Pius X basketball team made the CIF playoffs, the first time in 14 years.

Heading the Pius warriors was center Richis Antee. The 6'9" senior, averaged 23 points a game, was named the league's most valuable offensive player of the year.

Joining Antee were guards Anthony Jenkins and Wesley Cureton. Jenkins, a 6'3" sophomore, is the league's sixth leading scorer, with an average of 17 points a game. Jenkins was the only sophomore to be named to the league's 1st team. Cureton, a 6'3" senior, averaged 11 points a game, placing a 2nd warrior to the league's first team.

Pamela has been a strong part of honor, unity and the true spirit of the Pius tradition. In the past three and a half years, Pamela has been involved heavily with the student government and the school activities. She started as a Sophomore, first year here, Pamela became Captain of the JV Cheer Squad and Sophomore Class Treasurer. During her Junior year, she was selected to represent Pius at California Girls' State and was the first underclassman to hold a major position on ASB as Secretary. As a Senior, Pamela has worked hard for the school as ASB President, and Yearbook Photo-Editor. Pamela hopes to attend the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana. Pamela feelings about Pius: "My friends and teachers have helped me out in their very special ways; I hope I have come through for them!"

In his three years at Pius X, Steve Gomez has been involved in various activities. When he found out that he was chosen to be profiled for the Organization Section, he said that this was an honor and privilege. As a Sophomore, he played JV Football, basketball and ran track. During his Junior year, Steve played Varsity football and received MVP Defensive End and the Defensive Excellence Award. This year he wore the Red Beret as Varsity Football Captain. As an ASB member, Steve has held the position of Senate Co-Chairman and is presently Senate Chairman. When asked of his thoughts about Pius, Steve stated, "I like Pius because it's a small school and getting to know people is easy; we're like one big family." After graduation, Steve plans to attend a college, but is still undecided in his choice.

Secretary: Iliana Santos

A student organization that has become a great asset to the school is the Senate. The homerooms of each level are given an opportunity to select two Senators to represent them at the Senate meetings.

The Senate helps to better inform the student body and give them a chance to get more involved in the school. Each week the Senate officers attend the A.S.B. meetings. Then every Thursday the Senate meets and the officers give the information back to the Senators. The Senate members relay the information back to their homerooms. They then ask for suggestions or comments from the students and bring them back to the Senate meetings.

The beautiful singing voices of Pius belong to the members of glee. Mr. Drolinger, who is the director, has helped them bring out their abilities and helped them prepare for the Thanksgiving Mass, Christmas Concert and other various events. These experiences will prepare them for their annual competition at the end of the year. Singing "together in perfect harmony" will enable them to achieve their goal.

Gabriel, come blow your horn.

Most of Pius' musically inclined people are in band. Under the direction of Mr. Drollinger, the band has shown their talents by performing at the Christmas Concert. They have shown their school spirit at games and rallies. Lifting up people's spirits when things are down and entertaining people with their music at the games. Making beautiful music together will help them to be a successful part of Pius.

Musicians Club

A new club this year that has been incorporated into the Pius X family is the musicians club directed by Mrs. Taylor. The purpose of this club is to bring those who enjoy the art of music together to relax and have a great time, just by getting to know the things they have in common concerning the varieties of instruments and music there are.

Drama: Break A Leg

Look at Liz, what an actress!!

Tracy Scott giving a showing of emotion.

The future actors and actresses of Pius X High School are led by director Mr. Ball. These students are preparing to enter the world of drama. While learning the fundamentals of acting, these students are beginning to understand that drama is more than getting up on stage and saying your lines. You must feel your character and get into the part. Throughout the year they have shown their talent through plays and other activities. The best of luck to these students in their continuing efforts in the world of drama.

We wish these students good luck and hope they will continue to pursue a career in law.

Pius is pleased to have a great Music Man like Mr. Drollinger!

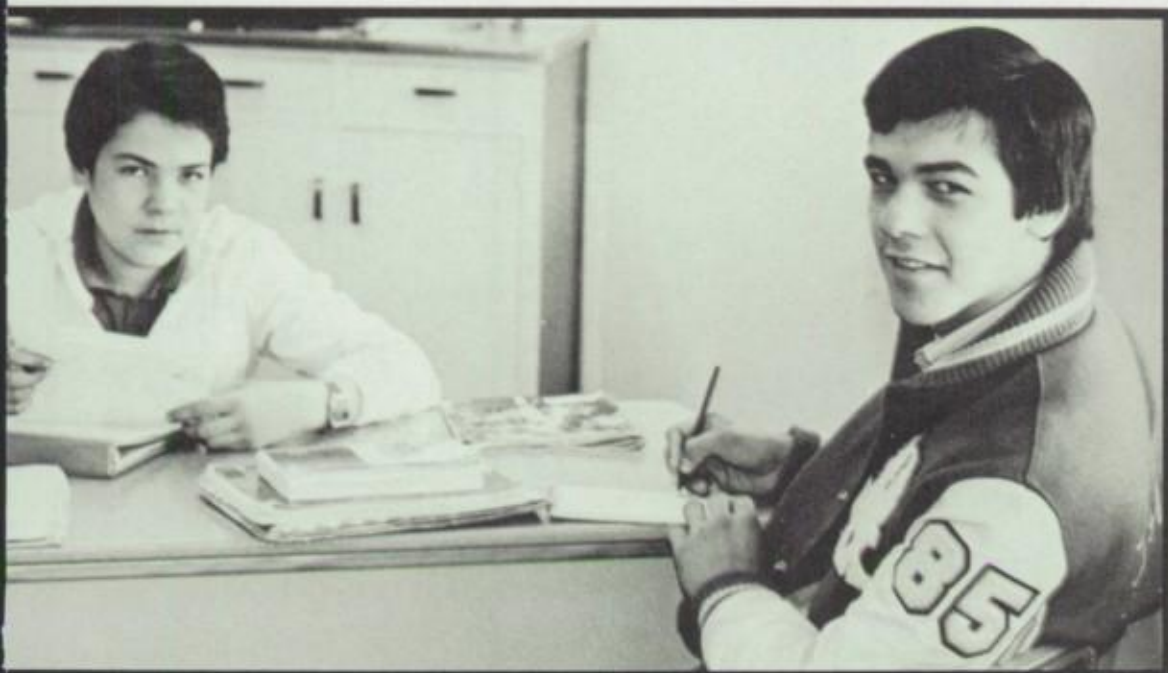

The Famed Basketball Harmony Warriors!

The Warrior Chorus is an all boys choir that has just recently been formed under the direction of Mr. Jim Drollinger. These boys meet on every Tuesday and Thursday before school. The boys had worked hard from the beginning of December to prepare for their first performance in front of the school at the Christmas Liturgy. What a special gift for the student body to receive at Christmas!! This performance was a wonderful experience for Pius. We have long needed more creative arts, whether it be drawing, performance, or music. We here at Pius, would like to say thank you to Mr. Drollinger for the giving of his valued time to us. He has given us the opportunity to experience music in a new way.!

The Doctors Of The Future

The Bio-medical club is an organization of students who in the future will be interested in the medical field. Mrs. Bergh, as director, will help them achieve their interest. Together they enjoy many activities and help each other learn more. Good luck to the future doctors of Pius X.

Dungeons And Dragons

This new Club is organized to play the game of Dungeons and Dragons which helps us to learn about all the discoveries of life. Dungeons and Dragons took a new role this year in the history of Pius X and from the results, it shall continue to grow and be part of the school.

Parents Involved With Us

Without our Parent Booster Organization, we here at Pius X, would not have the athletic program we now have. These parents are a vital link to the structured framework of our school. These parents are involved so that all the students at Pius have the chance to excel in any of the given sports sponsored through the school. They give of their valuable time not only in support but to work each of our home games.

The two most organized are the boys' football and basketball parents. These parents are extremely important to our school's effort to raise money to support our teams. Whether we win or lose, they are here to help.

In any school, the key to a successful athletic program is its link to education and parent support. Pius is no different, we are a small school with a limited budget and without the Booster Parents, we would have a difficult time being both an excellent academic and athletic school we are now. We would all like to say "THANK YOU" for all the time, you the parent, gives through this organization.

Special Dedication

We would proudly like to dedicate this Volume 31 to Miss Gibbons, our Advisor. We feel that she deserves a lot of credit for making this production possible. Miss Gibbons is a very talented lady, she strives really hard to go beyond her goals. She has a strong influence on people, she takes the time to listen and try to understand a particular situation. Many people don't know Miss Gibbons as well as I do; I have been with her since my Freshman year, and we could say that I was a "warm" welcome to her! I believe in her more than I have in anyone else in my entire life, and God knows how much she means to me. I knew that this book was going to be a great success. To be honest though, I was worried that I wasn't going to be able to express my thoughts clearly, because we both like to do things our way; sure enough, we were willing to compromise and come up with even better ideas. We worked as a team, and we fought till the end, and we came out winning!! Miss Gibbons has put more heart and soul into this yearbook than anyone. She came into our class without a clue about what to do and what we were talking about. "3R Planner?", she was puzzled. In less than weeks she was using our terms correctly and putting them into use. She asked more questions than anyone, she wanted to know everything; soon enough she was doing things on her own. When she didn't like something she would work with it and develop new designs, combine everyone's thoughts and ideas and come up with something original. It was a very difficult year but Miss Gibbons remained on top of things, pushed and pushed everyone and didn't stop until she was satisfied. She deserves this dedication for being the most understanding person that I know. "Miss Gibbons, well it is finally over, at least this year is!! I really am glad that we had the opportunity to work together this last year of mine. It was more than a pleasure. Remember always that you are my inspiration!! Keep up with all the good work, and most of ALL GOOD LUCK next year and if you need me you know where I will be"

MIKE MURPHY

It's been a long time in coming but with the excellent coaching of Mr. Mike Murphy and the four long hard years, Pius X, made it to the CIF Playoffs. This is one of the greatest achievements for Pius basketball team, since it has been over 14 years since we'd even come close to playing in the playoffs. It's been a long hard road to this achievement. In looking back over the past four years, we can see the preparation that was taking place for this bright shining moment. It all seem so strange now but when it all started the people and the players thought the Coach was CRAZY. Us?!! Pius, in the CIF Playoffs????!! But in the beginning, that is just what Coach Murphy was looking at, to be CIF Champions in the sport event of Basketball, to make Pius X a power on the Court, to have the other schools realize that Pius was going to become #1 and stay there. We have done just that! We have just accomplished that first step to be CIF Champions.

When Mr. Murphy first came back to these great hall of Pius, he began his long journey on that road to the CIF Playoffs. Pius was 0-10 and there were only a few loyal fans who came to see the team play. This year alone Pius has achieved a lot. We, now have a record of 8-2 for the regular league season, only losing to Mater Dei. The fans have grown from just those few loyal fans to a sellout crowd for the Feb. 8th game against Mater Dei, here at the home of the Warriors.

We, here at Pius, are PROUD of our #1 Coach of the year and his #1 team. None of this would have been possible without Mr. Murphy's experienced coaching staff: Varsity Defensive Coach Deon Evans, JV Coach Robert Orellana, Sophomore. Coaches Gene Hamilton and Rick Lamprecht, Freshmen Coaches Mike Hamilton and John Lussman.

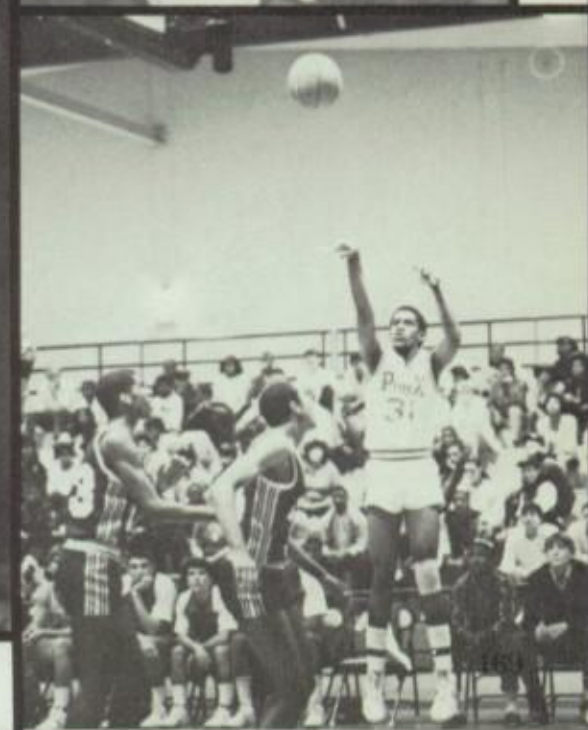

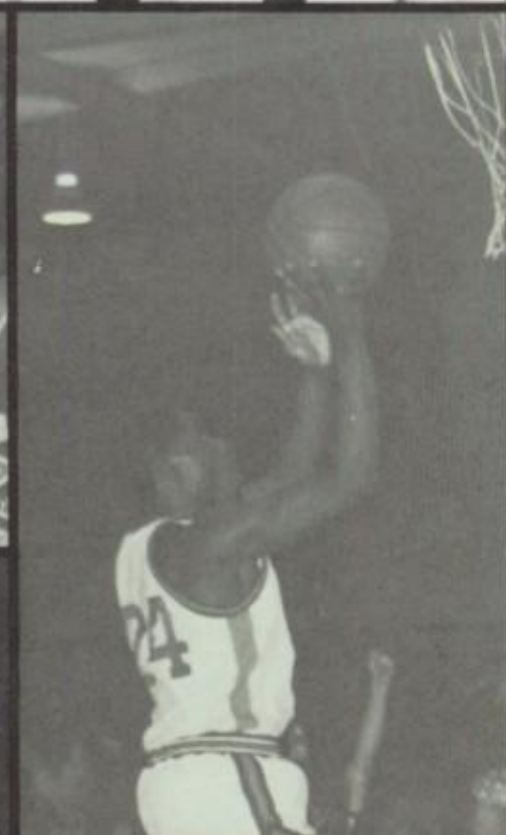

Thanks, Coaches!
All we can say is, "ALL RIGHT, WE ARE JAMMING NOW!!!"

This year's Tiara has been a ture experience for all of us on the staff. We have put together, what we believe is the BEST yearbook in the history of Pius X, since 1967. In 1967, Pius won the honor of a 1st Class Rating from the All American Yearbook Critical Service.

We are extremely proud of our 1984-85 edition of the Tiara, "Together in Perfect Harmony". We again plan to enter this prestigious contest with the hope of bringing home to Pius, the All American Yearbook 1st Class Honor.

Due to meeting ALL our deadlines on time our publishing company, Josten's is suppling all those who purchased a book a free supplement, which will have all the wonderful activities we shared at the end of the year together. This supplement will be sent to all of us in the summer from Josten's.

We, the TIARA staff, wish to thank all the Pius X family for the fawn memories captured in this edition. Or should I say,

"WE DID IT OUR WAY"

Miss Gibbons, our advisor, the 1984-85 editor Martha Grijalva.

Acknowledgements

The Production Of Volume 31 of Tiara has been a very difficult but successful task. There are many people who deserve special thanks for their time, patience and understanding. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the following who have contributed in many special ways to the production of "Together In Perfect Harmony".

To our advisor, Miss Gibbons, who even though she came to us as a new comer, fought along with us to find new solutions and in the process developed a special skill in Yearbook Producing. Thank you for your guidance and support; without you here we wouldn't have made it the way that we did. You put so much of yourself into this book and it looks GREAT ...

To Wally and Tony of Wally and Wayne Photography, who went out of their way and spent several hours of work to help us meet all of our deadlines. We can never forget all of the continued dedication that you have given to Pius. Thank You for everything and may God bless you always ...

To Steve Wagner, our Representative from Josten's, who has held confidence in our production, and helped out just by being the person that he is. Without his unique way of reassurance, we wouldn't have made it through ...

To Danny Livingston and Victor Lopez for providing the Warrior Art for our end pages. You two are Definitely talented young men. May the spirit of creativity stay in your hearts forever ...

To Mr. and Mrs. Thiel in the business office for handling our finances with the great care ...

To Father Alfred for taking the time to proofread all of our work ...

To Mercedes Flores and Angela Jimenez for providing the story on the cover. Your writing skills are the beginning of adventurous lives ...

To the head Varsity coaches for being there when we needed them most. Thanks for your support ...

To Mrs. Grace Vitale and the ladies for taking care of our baked goods for our bake sale ...

To Mr. Salatich for providing us with some photographs ...

To Ernie Medina who has been an extra helping hand for us. Thank you for taking pictures at the varsity games and whenever we asked. You helped us out in ways you'll never know ...

And lastly a special thanks to this year's Tiara Staff. It was a learning experience for all of us. We went through a lot together, and we discovered that it is not easy to publish a yearbook. It takes time and dedication. Pam, without you as my Co-Editor things just wouldn't have been the same. You were always there to take all of the pictures that we needed to meet all of deadlines. It's a job well done, I am proud of you! Thanks a lot for hanging in there with me when things got really deep!! Nivi, thanks a lot for all the excessive typing that you did, believe me without your support I would have never made it through! Annie and Sandra, even though half of the patience and just for being you. Marlene, what else can I say but thank you for completing your work on time. Jennifer Shores, GOOD LUCK to you next year. I know you won't let Miss Gibbons down. Thanks to all the rest of you!!!! You were all a very patient staff, and you put up with a lot from Miss Gibbons and me. ## Reagan: 2nd-Term Landslide

Even before the votes were cast, the Presidential incumbent was mapping out his plan for the next four years. Ronald Reagan promised that his second term of office would be quite different from his first four years. With his extraordinary triumph over Mondale, he confirmed the prediction of a "landslide". This landslide victory became a political coup for his long political career. With a firm pledge of support from the voters, President Reagan could now take more pursive action and be more aggressive during his second term. He was quoted that night to say, "Tonight's the end of nothing and the beginning of everything." This very thought was the expression of 3,000 jubilant campaign workers and Californian Republicans that had worked hard for this massive victory. President Reagan's victory celebration was held at the Century City Plaza Hotel where he told the people what his goals would be for the next four years: 1) to overhaul the tax laws, 2) to shrink the federal deficit, 3) to rebuild U.S. defenses, 4) to achieve a U.S. - Soviet Arms Pact, and 5) to contain Central American Communism.

Baby Fae's Memories

In the fall of 1984, a team of medical researchers received the interest of the world, when they transplanted the heart of a healthy baboon into a two-week old infant girl for her last chance at survival. The transplant occurred a generation after the first efforts at such cross-species procedures met with limited success; without her knowledge, this small child became part of an historical event.

The operation, which was the placing of a young, adult female baboon heart into a small human infant girl, has set off a series of debates. The research team has been given praise as well as criticism for their decision to prolong the life of this one small child. These debates brought defenders of both man and beast to the press. Questions were being asked: Were we violating animals' rights, or perhaps challenging the particularity of human/animal relationship? Had proper procedures been followed: scientific preparation, institutional review, the informing of the parents and the securing of their consent? Was there reasonable chance of the child's survival, or was the transplant seen from the beginning as an experiment from which others could benefit?

Unfortunately, two weeks after this historic operation took place and the infant's surgeons had sewn in the baboon's heart, Baby Fae began to show signs of rejection. The child fought for her life, but her body began to work against her and this new alien organ. The infant's immune system was attacking the heart that was keeping her alive. Her doctors fought very hard to keep her alive by giving her new drugs for organ rejection. The drugs the doctors were using started to bring about kidney failure. Her kidneys were no longer able to cleanse her blood, causing her kidneys and heart to fail. Baby Fae had lived 21 days after the historic operation that had been an attempt to prolong her life.

The research team that performed the operation was headed by Dr. Leonard Bailey, head of Cardiology at Loma Linda University Medical Center in San Bernardino, California. Baby Fae was born with hypoplastic left heart syndrome, a gross underdevelopment of the heart's main pumping chamber, the left ventricle.

Under the right circumstances and with the right type of organ, animal grafts might one day be useful. Just because this was the first doesn't mean that it was unwarranted, or necessarily the best or the last. Dr. Bailey and his staff were shaken by the news of Baby Fae's death, for they had worked around the clock to save her.

There are still questions to be answered about the issue of organ rejection, the effects of cyclosporine on developing blood systems, whether an animal heart can grow to sustain an adult human and whether accurate tissue typing can be worked out for non human primates. Bailey and his team believe that the lessons learned from Baby Fae will pave the way to future cross-species transplant, and he is convinced that they will be able to diagnose the organ rejection earlier. Fae will live on in our hearts and memories forever.

Indira Gandhi Dead

India's fate as the world's most populous democracy hangs in the balance in the aftermath of the assassination of its Prime Minister, Indira Gandhi. India must now cope with the pressures that threaten its very existence: wide spread droughts, overpopulation, and extreme poverty. All of India's problems are now to be ministered by Mrs. Gandhi's successor, Rajiv Gandhi. He is politically unexperienced to handle the problems of his country, but he is Indira Gandhi's successor and with that he must administer to India's welfare.

On October 31, 1984, at 9:08 a.m., Indira Gandhi was on her way to meet British actor/director, Peter Ustinov. Mr. Ustinov was awaiting to conduct a television interview with her. On her way to the interview she was approached by two men no more than seven feet away from her. Beant Singa drew a .38 revolver and fired three shots into her abdomen. She fell to the ground. Satawant Singh pumped another 30 rounds from his Sien automatic weapon into her body. There were at least seven bullets that penetrated her abdomen, three penetrating her chest and one shot in the heart. The Prime Minister was dead! The two Sikhs dropped their guns and surrendered to the authorities. With this the security guards seized both of them and took them to the guard house. On the way to the guard house, Beant lunged for one of the guard's guns. Another guard opened fire, killing Beant instantly, leaving Satawant wounded.

Indira Gandhi, the night before her tragic death, was talking to a large crowd in Orissa's capital city of Bhubaneswar. She is quoted as saying, "I am not interested in a long life, I am not afraid of things. I don't mind if my life goes in the service of this nation." The facts stand true, Indira Gandhi was a proud, stubborn, courageous woman who hated to wear the protective bullet proof vest. She died as she had lived giving service to her country.
